

Activation of EMS Response to Emergencies

Resident, staff or visitor experiences an Is the facility a nursing facility? NO emergency medical condition Does facility have a contract with a licensed ambulance service for NO emergency transport? Does facility have current, QI-supported protocols for staff to perform NO emergency medical assessments? Does facility have a licensed health NO professional on-site to perform such an assessment? Does facility have appropriate first response capability, based on the NO patient's medical needs, equivalent to the capability provided by the local EMS system? Call 911 immediately Facility's licensed health care professional for EMS care may call contracted ambulance service to provide transport. Facility's licensed health care professional may at any time call 911.